TENDER YACHT · HIGH SEASON

Your yacht's tender, around the clock

Many yachts cross the Atlantic without their tender: the cost and the logistics rarely make sense. Arrive in the islands and find yours waiting. For the length of your charter, SARE and its captain become your yacht's tender. Day and night, every journey by sea is ours: guest outings, runs to shore, transfers to the airport or another island, provisioning and errands.

HOW IT WORKS

At your disposal, 24/7
The captain lives to your yacht's rhythm, from the first coffee run to the last shuttle home after dinner.

Part of your yacht
For the duration of the rental, SARE operates as your yacht's tender, under your yacht's insurance and alongside its crew.

Captain all-inclusive
One rate covers the boat and a dedicated professional captain. Nothing else to book and nothing to add.

Running costs apart
Fuel and all other charges, such as port dues and clearance, are not included in the rate and are settled separately.

WHAT WE DO FOR YOUR YACHT

Outings & excursions
Lunch in Anguilla, a swim at Colombier, snorkelling at Tintamarre. The yacht keeps its anchorage, your guests keep their rhythm.

Airport transfers
Guests met on arrival at Princess Juliana (SXM), Saint-Barth (SBH) or Anguilla (AXA) airport, a car to the nearest dock with their luggage, then the sea to the yacht, their villa or the next island. The fastest way from a long-haul flight to the yacht.

Crew logistics
Crew changes, laundry, shopping runs and appointments ashore.

Runs to shore
Yacht to Gustavia quay, beach clubs, restaurants and villas, from breakfast to the last ride home.

Provisioning & errands
Groceries, flowers, wine, urgent parts: whatever the yacht needs, fetched from Sint Maarten or Saint-Barth.
